JULY 2022

PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

by Pastor Floyd

Fhubb53300@aol.com

Cell: 614-648-2272

Isn't summer a great time of year? I love the warm weather, the smell of fresh cut grass, and the many shades of green in the trees, not to mention the splendid colors of the flowers that surround us. How about the long days? I walk our dog at 5:30 am, and the light of the new day is there to greet us. I love summer! It can't stay long enough in my mind.

We are soon approaching a wonderful summer event, July 4th. In this community, we celebrate our life and liberty in this country with the intensity it deserves. Four full days of flag waving, parades, and plenty of good food. We live in a great country indeed.

In all of the celebratory things we do at this time, I hope you remember that we are first citizens of a Kingdom that deserves even higher accolades, the Kingdom of God. It is because of this Kingdom that we have what we do in this country. It is because we have always put God first in this country so His hand has continued to bless our growth and positively influence the world.

Therefore, we should crave a better government and pray for our leaders in order to operate in a loving, efficient, and compassionate way specifically to glorify our Lord. We should welcome all people from all corners of the world because we all belong to one race---the human race. Together we lift up Christ's command to "love the Lord our God with all of our heart, mind, and soul." The second part of that command continues on to say--- "and love your neighbors as yourself".

The symbol of our Kingdom home is not a flag but a cross. If we want to continue our legacy with our creator, we should take heed and return to our faith and do the things we used to do---put God first in all that we do.

May God continue to bless this country.

Pastor Floyd

PRAYER LIST REMINDER

On July 1st the names that have been on this list for over one month will be removed. Please notify Jennifer by July 1st, at southbloomfieldumc@yahoo.com to keep this important list current.

A LESSON WORTH REMEMBERING!

The Fruit of the Spirit. These are the nine characteristics of the Holy Spirit. Are they in you? Getting closer to Christ depends on:

LOVE
PEACE PATIENCE
FAITHFULNESS
GENTLENESS
SELF CONTROL

(Galatians 5:22-23)

If you are a disciple of Christ, you have this fruit available to you through the presence of the Holy Spirit.

TO YOU WE SAY "THANK YOU!"

There are many people that serve our church; hospitality, cleaning, groundskeepers, and people that are just "there" to meet whatever our church needs at the time. These people do it not for recognition but for the love of our church. To all those that serve, we say "thank you". Where would we be without all of you?

DON'T FORGET MR. COW

"It's very lonely up here sometimes," thinks Mr. Cow. He thinks he's forgotten about. He is here to serve. Don't forget to make him feel better by feeding him with your loose change.

This change helps various ministries of our church. You may give your change to the children or youth to take forward to feed Mr. Cow.

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR NEWSLETTER AND CHURCH EMAIL?

If not, please check your spam/junk folders. For some reason, it seems like more often, mail that you usually get is going there. If you don't get your mail, please email peeb26@outlook.com or Jennifer at southbloomfieldumc@yahoo.com.

HOW GOOD OF A LISTENER ARE YOU? The 10 Principles of Listening

We will explore the first 5 skills this month and the next 5 in the August newsletter.

How often are you listening to someone but thinking of what you want to say, so you are not actually taking in what that person is saying? Are you an interrupter? How is it that what you have to say is more important than the person you are listening to? Do you know it takes skill to become a good listener? You can learn how by reading below.

It is tempting to think that because you can hear, you must be a good listener. However, there is far more to listening than merely hearing. A good listener will listen not only to what is being said but also to what is left unsaid or only partially said.

Effective listening involves using your eyes and mind, as well as your ears.

1. Stop Talking ----- Don't talk, listen.

If we were supposed to talk more than we listen, we would have two tongues and one ear. – Mark Twain

When somebody else is talking, it is important to listen to what they are saying. Do not interrupt, talk over them or finish their sentences for them. Right now, the most important thing that you can do is simply listen to them. As the saying goes, there is a time and a place for everything—and that includes both listening and speaking.

...a time to keep silence, and a time to speak...
The Bible, Ecclesiastes 3:7

When the other person has finished talking, you may need to ask them questions, or reflect back what you have heard, to clarify that you have received their message accurately.

2. Prepare Yourself to Listen — Relax. Focus on the other Person.

Put other things out of your mind. The human mind is easily distracted by other thoughts, such as wondering what's for lunch, or what time you need to leave to catch your train, or whether it is going to rain later.

The greatest gift you can give another is the purity of your attention. – Richard Moss

3. Put the Person at Ease ----- Help the Person to feel free to speak.

It is not always easy for someone to talk freely, especially if they find the topic is difficult, or it causes an emotional reaction. However, as a listener, there are actions you can take to make the speaker feel more confident. For example:

Nod and smile, or use other gestures or words to encourage them to continue;

1) Maintain eye contact but don't stare; 2) echo back their last few words, in a technique known as mirroring, which is part of reflecting; and 3) Summarize or paraphrase what they have said, finishing with a question (or a questioning tone) to encourage them to continue.

4. Remove Distractions ----- Remove as many distractions as possible so you can focus on what is being said.

When you are listening to someone, it is a good idea to remove possible distractions. Put down your phone, or turn away from your computer screen. Avoid behaviors like doodling, shuffling papers, looking out of the window, picking your fingernails or similar. These kind of behaviors will suggest to the speaker that you are not interested, which makes it harder for them to speak.

5. Empathize ----- Try to understand the other person's point of view.

When you are listening, it is important to see issues from the speaker's perspective: to empathize with them. This helps you to understand their point of view, and to understand their concerns. The best way to do this is to let go of preconceived ideas.

By opening your mind to new ideas and perspectives, you can more fully empathize with the speaker. If the speaker says something that you disagree with, then wait. Keep listening to their views and opinions without comment, until they have finished speaking.

After all, your first impression could be wrong. You should only start to construct an argument to counter what is said, if necessary, once they have finished, and you have fully assimilated their argument.
